

FY20 Sub-Award Recipients

We are proud to announce the FY20 sub-award recipients, a group of outstanding organizations dedicated to empowering youth and strengthening communities across Kentucky.

- Jewish Family & Career Services of Louisville, Inc. – Awarded $112,772 to provide career support, counseling, and community-based services that empower individuals and families.
- Spalding University, Inc. – Awarded $127,341 to expand educational opportunities and leadership development for students across the Commonwealth.
- Volunteers of America Mid-States – Awarded $149,863 to deliver critical services that support recovery, housing stability, and youth development.
- Wanda Joyce Robinson Foundation, Inc. Awarded $55,024 to continue its mission of mentorship, advocacy, and hope for children and families impacted by incarceration.

Together, these organizations represent the heart of our investment in equity, opportunity, and youth empowerment. Their work ensures that young people across the Commonwealth have access to the tools, support, and pathways they need to succeed.